

Footprints

A large, stylized yellow graphic element resembling a pair of footprints or a signature flourish, positioned to the right of the word 'Footprints'. The graphic consists of two overlapping loops at the bottom, with a long, sweeping line extending upwards and to the right, ending in a sharp hook-like shape.

*There it was I saw what I shall never forget . . .
and never retrieve.*

Laughing faces, blown from the west and the east,

Faces lovely and proud.

Joan Hinde

Once upon a time I sat
    making verses while the cat half-asleep against my knee clawed a cushion purringly.
Cat, whose purring seemed to say
    some day—some day.

One day in a laboratory
Where I was set to guess and grope
I looked into a microscope.
I saw in perfect pattern sprawl
Something that was not there at all.
Something perhaps being utterly
Invisible to the naked eye
By Descartes' doubt as all untrod
As furrows in the brain of God.
If now the naked eye can see
So little of the chemistry
By which itself is hale or blind
What then about the naked mind.

FROM THE PARENT'S CLUB

May the road winding to the future lead you to happiness.

FROM THE CLASS OF 1968

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR SENIOR SISTERS

Youth is joy, fun, and tears,
Memories to cherish in future years.
Youth is like the springtime
With budding adventure and countenance sublime.
Each day a chance for beauty and life
To flower forth the fruits of its strife.
Youth is such a precious time,
Yet many waste their youthful prime.
With a whole lifetime to live through . . .
Many speak but never do.
